(double room occupancy)

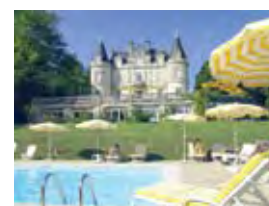

Loire Valley known as the Garden of France is noteworthy for the quality of its architectural heritage, in its historic towns such as Amboise, Angers, Blois, Chinon, Nantes, Orléans, Saumur, and Tours, but in particular for its world famous castles, such as the Château d'Amboise, Château de Villandry and Chenonceau.

The Loire Valley is an outstanding cultural landscape of great beauty, containing historic towns and villages, great architectural monuments, its many châteaux, and fine wines.

Preferred Chateaux

Domaine de la Tortinière ★★☆☆

Domaine des Bidaudières

Château de la Bourdaisière ★★☆☆

Centre Val de Loire & Pays de la Loire 5 Days / 4 Nights

Day 1: Depart Paris with your rental car and drive to Tours, the main city in the region of the Loire Valley and a good place to begin. Spend the first day exploring the capital of the Touraine region, with an historic heart and elegant public buildings. Settle in your hotel, the Domaine des Bidaudières in Vouvray.

Day 2: Begin with one of the most beautiful of the châteaux, Chenonceau, built for a mistress and claimed by a queen. Stroll the elegant gardens before continuing to Amboise and stop at Le Clos-Lucé, the last home of Leonardo da Vinci, where you can see models of his inventions.

Day 3: Today visit the largest of the Loire castles, the Château de Chambord, with its remarkable architecture and hundreds of rooms. Continue to the Renaissance gardens of the Château de Villandry, noted for their symmetrical beds and intricate designs. For a jaunt off the beaten path, check out the town of Villaines-les-Rochers, an entire village of basket makers, where local crafts are alive and well.

Day 4: Head for Chinon, birthplace of Rabelais and yes, another castle, this one a fortress dominating the hillside and the town. Continue to Saumur to stop and taste the sparkling wine of the region, or visit some of the troglodyte houses and dwellings at Chênehutte-les-Tuffeaux or in the village of Troo. Stop to see the Abbaye Royale de Fontevraud, once a great and powerful abbey, where Eleanor of Aquitaine and her son, Richard the Lionhearted, were laid to rest. Many gardens in this region are open for visitors.

Day 5: Morning at leisure. In the afternoon, depart the Loire Valley and drive back to Paris downtown or to CDG airport.

Bordeaux is famous for its various wines, which are considered among the best in the world. It is also a very nice place to visit, among them Les Quais, La Victoire, and the Pedestrian Center.

Day 1: Take the TGV train from Paris to Bordeaux. Arrive in Bordeaux and pick up your rental car. Enjoy the rest of the day to discover at leisure the city of Bordeaux. Visit the Bordeaux Wines Museum for an introduction to the history of wine or the Centre National Jean Moulin. You can also visit Bordeaux Vinorama. Wine can be purchased on the spot. Overnight in Bordeaux.

Day 2: Pick up your rental car and start your discovery of Bordeaux vineyards. The Médoc is one of the most famous wine regions in France, and home to many well-known names. Follow the route along the Gironde through Margaux and Pauillac.

Day 3: Saint-Emilion is Bordeaux's largest wine district and possibly it's the most beautiful village. Saint-Emilion wines are also quite distinctive from those of the Médoc. Spend a day in the village steep streets, medieval stone houses, and a magnificent church carved from the hillside and visit the wineries in the surrounding area.

Day 4: The Sauternes district is composed of five villages including Barzac, the largest, and the area produces a wonderful sweet white wine sometimes called "sunshine in a glass". Stop also to see Château de Cazeneuve, which dates to the 11th century.

Day 5: The Graves district reaches along the south bank of the Garonne River from Bordeaux and is known mainly for its white wines but also some reds. Some of the best known here are Château Haut-Brion and Château Smith-Haut-Lafitte. On the east bank, lies the Premières Côtes de Bordeaux, still worth a visit, as is St-Macaire, a lovely medieval village overlooking the Garonne River.

Day 6: Morning at leisure to do last minute shopping in Bordeaux. Drop off your rental car and take the TGV train to Paris.
